WAR MEMORIAL BILL APPROVED

House and Senate Passes Measure
Appropriating Two Million For
American Legion Home

NOW GOES TO GOV. GOODRICH

Conferees Agree on Restoring Control
of Tax Levies and Bonds
to Local Taxing Units

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.—Shorn of senate amendments increasing the appropriation about $2,000,000, the war memorial bill received final action by both branches of the special legislature today.

It will now go to the governor. Both the house and the senate concurred on reports of the conferees on the measure.

The bill now appropriates $2,000,000 as the state's contribution to the war memorial building to be erected in Indianapolis as the national headquarters for the American Legion.

The fight surrounding this bill was second only to that over proposed tax legislation. It originally provided for a $10,000,000 memorial building, on which the state was to give $5,000,000 and the city of Indianapolis and Marion county the remainder.

The house cut the state's share to $2,000,000 and the senate boosted it.

The tax measure originating in the house and amended in the senate, stood a good chance at seeing light of day and Lieutenant Governor Bush and other leaders, predicted that an agreement could be reached by conferees on senate amendments, and adjournment would be probably tonight.

Conference committees on the home rule bill and the "cure all" tax bill were reported near agreement with the senate conceding on one and the house on the other.

The senators on the home rule bill committee were victorious in restoring the control of the tax levies and bond issues to the local taxing units, giving 20 taxpayers the right of appeal to the county council. The house favored vesting the appeal power in the state tax board.

On the cure all bill the senators

W. W. FRANKLIN NOW FACES THREE CHARGES

Former Rushville Man, Who Was Returned From Illinois Last Night, Accused by Wife

$5,000 FOR INJURIES ASKED

William W. Franklin, against whom two affidavits were filed yesterday in Squire Stech's court, one being for wife desertion and the other for child desertion, was arrested in Illinois yesterday afternoon and returned to this city late last night, where he was placed in jail, and was to be given a hearing late this afternoon, a third charge being filed against him, on a complaint to recover penalty, his wife demanding $5,000, for personal injuries.

While working in Rushville, he went under the assumed name of Jackson. The charges were preferred by Marie Franklin, his wife, who before her marriage was Marie Ashcraft of Noble township. The new charge filed today was brought by his wife, who alleges that she became the mother of a child in 1918, and that he married her in order to escape prosecution, but failed to live with her very long after their marriage.

The three charges were filed in the circuit court here in February of this year, but the defendant was not found, and because of the court being in vacation, the arrest was made in Squire Stech's court. Upon being given a hearing this afternoon, the man will be bound over to the circuit court on those charges, as the matter is beyond the jurisdiction of the lower court.

BANNER YIELD FOR COUNTY

Capp Miller Gets 35 Bushels to
Acre From Treated Seed Wheat

Capp Miller, living southwest of Rushville has threshed an eight acre tract of wheat which yielded 35 bushels to the acre, and will keep the wheat for seed. The seed used on the eight acres was given the hot water treatment, which is believed to be the cause for the big yield. The untreated wheat averaged slightly better than 20 bushels to the acre.

County Agent D. D. Ball is anxious for all farmers who have a big yield, to save the wheat and list it for sale, as there will be a scarcity this fall of good seed wheat.

WILSON MAY TAKE A HAND IN STRIKE

President's Action Will Depend on
Report Which Will Be Made by Secretary Wilson.

COAL OPERATORS WILL MEET

To Confer Friday Over Suggestion
of Pres. Lewis For Joint Conference to Try to End Strike

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 29.—President Wilson shortly will take a hand in the coal strike in Indiana and Illinois, it was stated at the White House today.

It was intimated here, however, that Wilson's action will depend upon a report which is to be submitted to him by Secretary of Labor Wilson who was called back to Washington in connection with the strike.

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—The strike of 75,000 Illinois miners will end in two or three days in the judgment of Frank Farrington, President of the Illinois miners' union, he said today.

Harrington refused to amplify his statement, merely adding that what he knew of the situation at this time led him to believe the difficulties will be ironed out within the next 48 or 72 hours.

St. Louis, Mo., July 29.—Coal operators of the central competitive coal fields will confer Friday in Chicago over the situation caused by the unauthorized strike in bituminous coal fields, Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operators executive committee, announced today.

Brewster today issued a call for the meeting. Operators of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania will consider at the conference the request of John L. Lewis, president of the Union Mine Workers of America for a joint meeting being held to attempt settlement of the strike.

The operators' position also probably will be definitely decided.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 29.—Very little change in conditions in mining circles was reported today, the third day of the unauthorized coal strike, which the miners termed a "lay off."

About seventy per cent of the mines in the Indiana fields were still closed, according to word from the coal trade bureau. The car supply of those which are running is ample due to the fact that the majority of the mines were closed.

The outstanding feature of the developments of the past twenty-four hours was the miners' meeting at Twelve Points late yesterday afternoon, which resulted in a near riot.

Two newspaper reporters were mobbed and rushed to the meeting held by the miners. They were jeered at and called "ten cent dudes" because newspapers have referred to the present condition as a strike, when the miners insist that they have only quit.

The miners' meeting adjourned in confusion without having taken definite action. It had just received recommendations of the union leaders that the miners return to work pending efforts to adjust the differences.

SOME ELEVATORS CAN'T GET CARS

Few in Rush County Stop Buying
Wheat Because Limit of Stor-
age Capacity is Reached

RUSHVILLE ELEVATORS LUCKY

Manilla and Rays Crossing Have
Not Had Wheat Car—One Each
at Arlington and Falmouth

In the midst of the harvest season several elevators in the county are being compelled to shut down on account of the inability to secure cars for shipping, and are filled to the limit on storing wheat, and in these localities the farmers are holding the grain in their own barns to await better shipping conditions.

The three Rushville elevators, Winklers, Reed's and Ball & Ormes reported today that they considered themselves fortunate in securing cars, and were shipping out wheat daily, with still room for storage.

The elevator at Falmouth was compelled to close last Friday, being filled with grain and unable to secure cars for shipment. They reported that so far this season they have secured only one car for shipping.

The elevators at Manilla and Rays Crossing, owned by Thomas K. Mull, have not had a single car this season, according to the report given out at these elevators today. Both elevators are large, and are accepting the grain in storage, and will have room for more grain.

The Hutchinson elevator in Arlington is also among the unfortunate ones having been able to secure only one car this season. It was loaded yesterday. This elevator is also storing grain, and will continue to do so, until its capacity is filled.

The elevator at Farmers, owned by T. H. Reed & Son of this city, has not experienced difficulty in shipping grain, as cars have been set off at their switch almost daily.

Milroy is also fortunate, having had five cars this week, and at no time have they been in a serious plight on account of the shortage of cars. Some grain is being stored there, but most of it is being shipped out, while the cars are on hand one car being loaded for shipment this afternoon.

The elevator at Mays, located on the L. E. & W. railroad, reported today that so far they have not experienced any difficulty in getting cars, and are accepting wheat daily and are shipping it out promptly.

ESTATE TANGLED DUE TO ROBBERY

Theft of William L. Cory's Will
When Spiceland Bank Was En-
tered Causes Complications

PECULIAR SITUATION ARISES

Sudden Death of Dunreith Man, Who
Was Killed by Train, Further
Complicates Case

Bank robbers who rifled the deposit boxes of the Spiceland bank several months ago, created a difficult situation in the settlement of the estate of the late William L. Cory of Dunreith. Mr. Cory, who possessed an estate estimated at as much as $75,000, but which is officially reported at only $45,000, was killed on March 12, by a Pennsylvania railroad train. When a search was started for the will it was discovered that the bank robbers had carried it away with them.

In the hope that, since it was worthless to the robbers, the will might in time be recovered, the settlement of the estate has been postponed. However, it is now believed that the papers taken by the robbers from the safety deposit boxes, were turned to avoid giving any clues.

The widow, Mrs. Virginia G. Cory has therefore applied to the Henry circuit court for letters of administration and will attempt to carry out the provisions of her late husband's will from memory. The only heirs named besides herself are two adopted children, Walter B. Harvey of Pittsburgh, Pa. and Ruth A. Harvey of Dunreith.

Not only has the act of the robbers in taking the will thrown the affairs into a considerable tangle, but has also been instrumental in bringing to light a considerable amount of philanthropy on the part of Mr. Cory. The disappearance of the will made necessary a close investigation into the affairs of the estate. This revealed the fact that he was using his own money to further the education of three children of which he had been appointed guardian, after the children's funds had been exhausted. He was also guardian of two persons who are confined in insane asylums.

Mr. Cory provided for $1,000 of his estate to go to the Spiceland Academy. At the time of his sudden death reports were due on two of the children under his guardianship, who had reached age. This has now been taken care of by the widow.

The deceased was one of the best known residents in the southern part of Henry county and for some years conducted a cannery factory at Dunreith. He was also the owner of considerable real estate.

EPIDEMIC OF PETTY THIEVING HITS CITY

Causes Concern Among Number of People Who Have Been Both-
ered by Prowlers

ONLY SMALL THINGS TAKEN

An epidemic of petty stealing has hit Rushville and is causing considerable concern among a number of residents who have been bothered at night lately by prowlers.

Canary birds seem to be a special target for the robbers, who have taken two from front porches of Rushville homes in broad daylight during the last week. None of the articles stolen has been of any great value, but some people fear that made bold by eluding capture, the robbers may attempt bigger jobs.

Such small and insignificant things as pillows have been taken off of front porches, and other articles of little value have been reported missing by a number of Rushville people. Several women have been frightened at night during the last week by men who have been heard about their homes.

"BABY BEEF" MAKE RECORD

Three Shorthorn Steers Raised by
James Stiers Top Market

James Stiers topped the Indianapolis cattle market this week with three head of "baby beef", which brought $16.50 a hundred. They were thoroughbred shorthorns which he bred and raised himself and he is very proud of the record they made.

The shorthorns were only fourteen months old but they averaged 910 pounds each. The steers were bought by Ray Compton of this city and shipped to Indianapolis by him, selling $2 a hundred above the market price on that day.

NO DANGER FROM FLAG STRAW SMUT

Illinois Officials Assure Authorities
in This State That No Diseased
Straw Will Be Shipped

WOULD CAUSE A QUARANTINE

Conservation Department Takes Action Against Illinois When Ship-
ping Rumors Are Heard

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.—Illinois authorities have assured Richard Lieber, director of conservation in Indiana, that no straw from flag smut infected fields of that state will be shipped into Indiana. The department learned a few days ago such action was contemplated and promptly notified Illinois officials if the plan was carried out, then a state-wide quarantine would be placed on their state. "Such action was necessary," Mr. Lieber says, "to protect Indiana agriculture."

According to Frank N. Wallace, state entomologist, flag smut differs from other wheat smuts in that it attacks the leaves. In the later stages of this disease the flag smut causes the leaf and its sheath or boot, to become twisted and much distorted. Smutted plants rarely produce heads. While the disease is comparatively new in this country in European countries it is known to have reduced a crop 50 percent. The important thing Mr. Wallace points out, if flag smut, like stem smut of rye, is allowed to go unchecked, it will grow steadily more destructive for the very resistant spores are easily capable of surviving in the soil.

Flag smut is easily recognized by the long narrow stripes on the leaves. At first these stripes are bluish green or lead color, and later become black. It differs distinctly from bunt of wheat on one hand and loose smut on the other, because it attacks the leaves, while they attack the heads and kernels.

This disease results from the seedling becoming infected before the young plants appear above the ground and it can be controlled by seed treatment. The problem of control, complicated because the infection may result from spores already present in the soil or on old straw or other refuse previously worked into the soil, is frequently difficult. No amount of seed treatment can result in the prevention of flag smut unless that treatment is combined with a proper crop rotation. Mr. Wallace recommends at least a 3-year rotation. This smut is known to infect wheat only, and cannot as many believe, produce the similar smut in rye. The stem smut of rye which resembles very closely the flag smut of wheat, is easily prevented by the application of formaldehyde at the rate of 1 pint to 40 gallons of water. It is probable that the same solution applied for a period of 10 to 30 minutes will prove effective in killing any seed-borne spores of flag smut. The safest procedure, however, is to use for seed only wheat from clean wheat.

BANKS VALUED AT $1,101,500

Assessments Fixed by State Board
of Tax Commissioners Are Received by Auditor

REVEAL STRENGTH OF BANKS

Seventeen Telephone Companies Doing Business in County Are Assessed at $235,121

The thirteen banks and trust companies of Rush county will pay taxes next year on a combined valuation of $1,101,500, according to the assessments which were made by the state board of tax commissioners and have been certified to the Rush county auditor.

The express, telephone and telegraph companies have a combined valuation for taxation purposes of $303,801. These figures have also been sent to the auditor by the state board.

None of the assessments is materially changed, as compared with those of last year.

The valuations put on the bank stock of the county reveals the strength of Rush county's valuations. None of the counties in this section, where the state board has completed the assessments, has so much represented in bank stock, which is assessed at its true cash value.

The Rush County National bank has the largest assessment, $241,400 but the stock of the Peoples National bank is assessed higher per share. Its value is placed at $304.80 a share, but there are only five hundred shares out, as compared with one thousand shares in the Rush county bank.

The Rushville Co-operative Telephone company is valued higher by the state tax board than any other of the seventeen companies doing business in Rush county. Its assessment was fixed at $117,990.

The banks of the county were assessed for a combined valuation of $1,101,500 as follows:

Arlington bank, 400 shares at $79.25 each, $31,700.
Bank of Carthage, 1,000 shares at $151.50 each, $151,500.
Falmouth bank, 100 shares at $187 each, $18,700.
Glenwood State bank, 250 shares at $187.20 each, $46,800.
Manilla bank, 200 shares at $257

To Promote Efficiency

At its recent session the congress enacted a number of meritorious, constructive measures among which one of great importance is the retirement act which provides for the retirement of aged government employees and the pensioning of those who have served their country in the civil service over a considerable period of their lives. Only a few hundred employees will be thus retired. The pension payments that will be made by the government will be inconsiderable in amount. The importance of the measure lies, therefore, not in the number of employees retired nor in the amount of pensions that will be paid, but in the increased efficiency of the government service that will result from the saving of delay and consequent loss to the public which deals with the various government departments.

It matters relatively little to the country if an aged, infirm and inefficient employee receives some $1500 or $1800 per year for services he is incapable of performing. If that loss of a few hundred dollars per year were the only loss sustained, no great regret need be expressed. But that is the least of the losses suffered by reason of the retention of supernumerated government employees. It may very easily and frequently happen that business of utmost importance in which a private citizen has dealings with the government may be trusted to—the charge of one of these incapacitated employees with the result that through delay or error, thousands, or hundred of thousands of dollars are lost to the individual citizen without the possibility of recompense. Each Government employee is a link in the chain, a cog in the wheel, of the governmental machinery. Most government business must be transacted through the agency of employees and it makes little difference how efficiently the work may be performed by a dozen other employees if delay and error result from the inefficiency of one.

agitation in favor of the enactment of a retirement law which would make it possible for the government to relieve men who had rendered valuable service through a long period of years but who were incapacitated by age and who could not be arbitrarily dismissed without privation and suffering which would reflect discredit upon the government. By providing a pension system toward which the government employees themselves will contribute and to which they can look with confidence for sustenance in their old age, the government has not only dealt justly with its employees but has assured more efficient public service in the future.

Piety and Piety

Many people have a strenuous objection to being called pious.

The piety of today does not consist of pulling a long face and a sour grin. That form of piety is a thing of the past.

Neither is the man with a beautified smirk necessarily pious. Some of the worst scoundrels in the world travel around with a saintly smile and endeavor to create a halo of benevolence around their ungodly brows.

That is the reason so many men object to being termed pious.

The true piety of today does not welter in the gloom of its own existence. Instead it radiates the joy of life in a manner which all men know comes from the heart and is not donned for commercial reasons.

Pose as an apostle of piety? Forget it!

Give us instead the rugged honesty and simple truthfulness of a real man, who sincerely endeavors to do a little good in the world in his own humble and unobtrusive way, with no plaudits from the multitude and no thought of reward from St. Peter when he reaches the golden gate.

Some men talk loudly of justice, and roar quite as loudly when they get it.

When he had his picture taken with his head upon his hand. We were good and proud of Billy—he was looking something grand! He had started in to college and was tagged for father's frat. Or some other great achievement quite as wonderful as that. So we were impressed with Billy and were proud to beat the band. When he had his picture taken with his head upon his hand.

That is, all we kids felt that way. Father seemed to like it less. For he said, "God Lord!" when shown it, and he seemed in deep distress. Mother grinned a bit and giggled, and somehow it wasn't joy. Of the kind we had expected, for the honor of her boy. And she said, "Remember, father?" "Yes," he said, "I cannot stand to recall MY picture taken with my head upon my hand!"

About Advertising.

Advertising is what nothing was ever sold without.

If a loaf of bread is sold to a tramp who managed to gnom onto a fitney, it had been advertised by the tramp's hunger—and by somebody who told the "bo" where the bakery was.

Or by the window of the bakery itself.

There isn't a human being who doesn't believe in advertising.

If he really doesn't, he had better commit suicide.

And that will give him a lot of publicity that nobody can cash in on.

The man who claims not to believe in advertising is a—well, let somebody else say it.

This boob is anxious for everybody to tell other people that his place is a good one to trade.

But he won't give the advertiser anything for telling the other folks.

He is a something-for-nothing tightwad.

The man who puts on good clothes advertises his own respectability, and expects results in the shape of the respect of others.

The man who dresses poorly because of necessity or purposely, advertises his poverty and expects results in other people's help or contempt.

In fact, every honest person wants advertising.

Only dishonest people are afraid of it, and they get it anyway.

TAIL LIGHTS TO PLAY RICHMOND

Big Crowd of Fans is Planning to Journey to Quaker City Sunday For Game

HAVE WRONG DOPE UP THERE

Dispatch Says Tail Lights Have Only One Local Player Which is Far From Truth

The Richmond baseball club is figuring the Rushville Tail Lights wrong, according to information received here today, when a dispatch from that city said that the Rushville team is composed of only one local player and the remaining players hail from Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

The Tail Lights play at Richmond next Sunday, and will be accompanied by a large crowd of enthusiasts, Manager Conway wishing to secure room for some of the players in automobiles if anyone has an extra seat.

Plummer, who pitched winning ball for the Arlington Red Sox last year, will be given a tryout Sunday with the Tail Lights and Hobart, McCarty and Yazel of this city will be ready to relieve him.

This is the first year that Rushville has put a ball team on the field consisting of all local players, and the best talent in the city takes part in the games. The Tail Lights are heavy sluggers and in each game played have hammered out not less than eight hits, and as a rule generally average twelve to fourteen hits.

The following from Richmond today will be of interest among local fans:

"Rushville Tail Lights, claimers of baseball championship of eastern Indiana, will back their claims against the Richmond Eagles at Exhibition Park Sunday afternoon. Incidentally the Eagles are claiming the same championship.

"The showing made by the Eagles in the last four games has resulted in a larger attendance at each baseball game. Women attendants will be admitted free to all games for the rest of the season. Manager Haas announced Wednesday.

"It is believed that one member of the Rushville Tail Lights hails from Rushville. The rest are class players hired from Indianapolis and Cincinnati and Rushville strongly backs its team, thus insuring good players.

"Manager Haas said Wednesday he believed the Richmond Eagles would go through the season without another defeat. This includes the so-called championship games that are to be played with the Richmond Giants, Hagerstown and the champ of the Suburban league. Several strong teams yet remain upon the schedule."

BUTLER TO PLAY GAMES AT HOME

ROSE POLY AT TERRE HAUTE.

New Coach is Expected to Bring Indianapolis College to Front in Football This Year

By HEZE CLARK

Indianapolis, Ind. July 29—Within less than two months the football men of Indiana colleges will start hard training for the early games of the season.

Already many gridiron stars are taking light training. While the season is still two months away the football fans are wondering what Pat Page will accomplish at Butler college. Page has developed championship teams at Chicago working with Alonzo Stagg. There has been much discontent at Butler with the alumni system of coaching and the Butler authorities went the limit—they hired Page.

The best coach must have material from which to build a machine but it is not expected that Page or any other man can make a state championship team at Butler in one or two seasons. Page gave orders to use the Chicago U. system and plat most of the games on the home field and his orders were followed. Rosy Poly is the only team that Butler will play away from Indianapolis.

Oct. 2—Butler plays Whittenberg.
Oct. 9—Butler meets Hanover College.

Oct. 16—Butler meets Wilmington (an Ohio college eleven).

Oct. 23—Butler and Earlham tangle.

Oct. 30—Butler meets Georgetown university (first game between the two elevens in five years).

Butler tangles with Franklin Nov. 6.

Nov. 13—Butler plays Rose Poly at Terre Haute.

Butler closes its season Nov. 20 with a game with the Chicago Y. M. C. A. College team.

U.S. OLYMPIC TEAM SAILS FOR BELGIUM

To Battle With the Star Athletes of World For The Crown of King of The Track and Field

GAMES OPEN AT ANTWERP AUG

During Stay in Antwerp Athletes Will be Housed in Big School Building Provided for Them

New York July 29—America's Olympic team is on the Atlantic today headed for Belgium to battle the star athletes of the world for the crown of king of the track and field.

With the cheers of a big crowd of enthusiasts that gathered to see them off still ringing in their ears, the boys started a light series of deck workouts and exercises under the direction of Head Coach Jack Moakley that will keep them fit until they set foot on Belgian soil for the final training session.

It is generally agreed in athletic circles that the 1920 team is as good if not better, than any aggregation that sported the American shield in the games of the past.

Outside of the distance runs, the javelin and the hop step and jump, which are marked in the doubtful column, the team is considered to have at least two sure places in most of the events.

From the showing made in the final trials at Cambridge it appears that the forte of the team is in the sprints, the jumps and the pole vault.

The middle-distance runners and the hurdlers are also rated as having excellent chances to help pile up the points that it is hoped will retain the title of king for Uncle Sam.

With a representative of practically every state in the Union on the team it is a real American outfit. The east, west, north and south and the army and the navy all succeeded in landing men on the team.

The games start in the new stadium at Antwerp Aug. 15 and run until Aug. 23.

During their stay in Antwerp the athletes will be housed in a big school building that has been provided for their use by the Belgian government.

IS EXPECTED TO WIN THE DAVIS CUP

U. S. Tennis Team Has-Made Good Showing Against France and England and Victory is Certain

GAMES FOR NEXT WINTER

National Teams Will Take Part in Championship Games in Australia For The Davis Trophy

(By United Press.)

New York, July 28.—American tennis circles are getting yells ready to acclaim the victorious American team when it returns from Australia next winter with the Davis Cup.

The showing made by the American team in disposing of France and England in the preliminaries not only inspired this confidence here, but led English experts to believe that the Americans will be invincible if they keep up the style and brand of tennis that was shown during the preliminary matches and the British championships.

England rates William T. Tilden as one of the most deserving players that has ever held the world's championship title and he has just as many friends in America who believe that he has hit his real stride and will continue his sensational game on through the finals for the Davis Cup.

After William M. Johnston, the national champion, was eliminated by J. C. Parke, in the Wimbledon matches, some concern was felt in America lest the little Pacific Coast star was off his game. But in the matches between the British and American cup teams he avenged himself for the defeat and came back into his own bright game.

With Charles S. Garland and "Dick" Williams, who were spared in the preliminary matches, to fall back on, the chances of the Yankee team in the finals for the cup appear unusually bright.

Patterson and Brookes will be the same hard pair to beat, but most of the experts believe it can be done.

FACTORY TEAMS WILL PLAY

Park and Rushville Furniture Co. Men Arrange Sunday Game

While the Tail Lights are at Richmond Sunday, the Park Furniture company and the Rushville Furniture company teams of the Saturday afternoon league will play on the West Third street diamonds. The game will be the regular contest scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The rivalry between these two teams has been very keen and a good game is provided because both teams have some victories to their credit this season. Sunday will be the first time the Tail Lights have been away from home for several weeks and the factory teams will take advantage of their absence.

REAL BENEFITS REALIZED

First Eastbound Train Now Carries All But Parcel Post

The real benefits of the work of the local committee, which arranged on a trip to Cincinnati one day recently, for the 5:35 eastbound morning train on the C. & W. train to carry mail, are just now being realized, for the train is now carrying

all classes of mail except parcel post.

At first the train dropped off only first class mail, which did not let the rural mail carriers away any earlier in the morning, but enable business men to get their mail earlier. For the last several days, however, everything except parcels post has been thrown off on the first train east and the rural carriers have been leaving at 7 o'clock. The mail missed connections this morning and the carriers' departure was delayed an hour.

THE NEW OVERLAND

On Triplex Springs nimbly glided over the nation's roughest roads has written a wonderful story of Stamina. The story began with the unprecedented production test covering 250,000 miles of the wild country of the great Southwest. In its first eight months of service among 75,000 owners climax upon climax has been piled up in records of extraordinary performance.

The remarkable performance of the Overland is due largely to its jar-absorbing Triplex Springs, which prevent the usual pounding of rough roads from causing discomfort to passengers. They also reduce the stress and strain on motor and chassis, preserving the car for longer wear and reducing upkeep. The chassis itself of finest alloy steel adds to the stamina of the car as a whole.

The success of the Overland Triplex Springs has changed the attitude of thousands toward the light type of motor car. You cannot truly appreciate the comfort, economy and stamina of the new Overland until you have actually ridden in this car.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and agonizing and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Yellowstone Park is Nation's Greatest Game Preserver Where Many Varieties of Animals Are Seen

Yellowstone, Park, Wyo., July 28.—Encouraging reports regarding the increase in native American game have been received by officials of Yellowstone National Park from many cities and states to which breeding animals from the famous park preserve were donated.

In an effort to repair the damage done by hunters, who have exterminated native animals in the more thickly populated sections, it has been the policy of the National Park Service to send bison, elk, bear, antelope and beaver to public parks and state preserves where they would be given favorable environment and a chance to multiply. In some cases, the state laws have not sufficed to protect the animals, especially elk, from selfish hunters, and a number have been killed, but the remainder have shown healthy increase.

Park officials today expressed regret over exports from Europe that the European bison has been virtually exterminated in the chaos following the war. The famous herd owned by Count Potock and other rare animals on his estate were slaughtered by the Bolsheviks in their policy of destroying everything that could not be commonly owned. The czar's herd of 700 in Lithuania has been reduced to 180 animals by deserters and poachers in the forest of Byelovitsa.

More elk have been shipped from Yellowstone since last season than any other kind of game. During the hard winter it was impossible to feed all the animals and to keep some of the elk from starving to death, donations were freely made. The government of Canada received 298, which were sent to parks in the Rockies. In return, the Dominion officials generously offered to send moose, goats and sheep to Yellowstone, but the offer was not accepted because the Yellowstone moose are of a different variety, the park has never had any goats, and the mountain sheep already there are increasing satisfactorily.

Elk also have been sent recently to Minneapolis, Minn.; Kerrville, Texas; Paisades Park, New Jersey, near New York City; Platt National Park, Sulphur, Oklahoma; St. Louis, Mo.; Allentown, Pa.; Sonora Experiment Station, Sonora, Texas, and Pierre, S. D. Previously large shipments were made to mountain states in the West.

Much ingenuity is exercised to trap the animals for shipment. In the case of elk, a trail of succulent hay is laid into a corral and when the elk have entered, the gate is closed by means of a rope, operated by a Ranger hidden some distance away. For two days the animals are kept to accustom them to men and then are shipped in specially fitted express cars.

Buffalo, of course, come from the park's noted tame herd, which now numbers more than 500 animals. Antelope are obtained in the same manner as the elk.

Bears forfeit their freedom in gratifying their weakness for sweets. A cage trap is arranged with honey and preserves inside. The bear doesn't hesitate, once he gets a sniff. Straight into the cage he goes and the man secreted on top then pushes down the door. The cage must be lined with sheet-iron, otherwise Bruin would tear the sides to pieces with his sharp claws. It has happened half a dozen times. Only young, healthy animals are shipped out of the park and in case an unsuitable specimen is obtained, the door is opened to let him out. Frequently, however, the sweets inside prove too much and the bear, driven away, trots back in again and again.

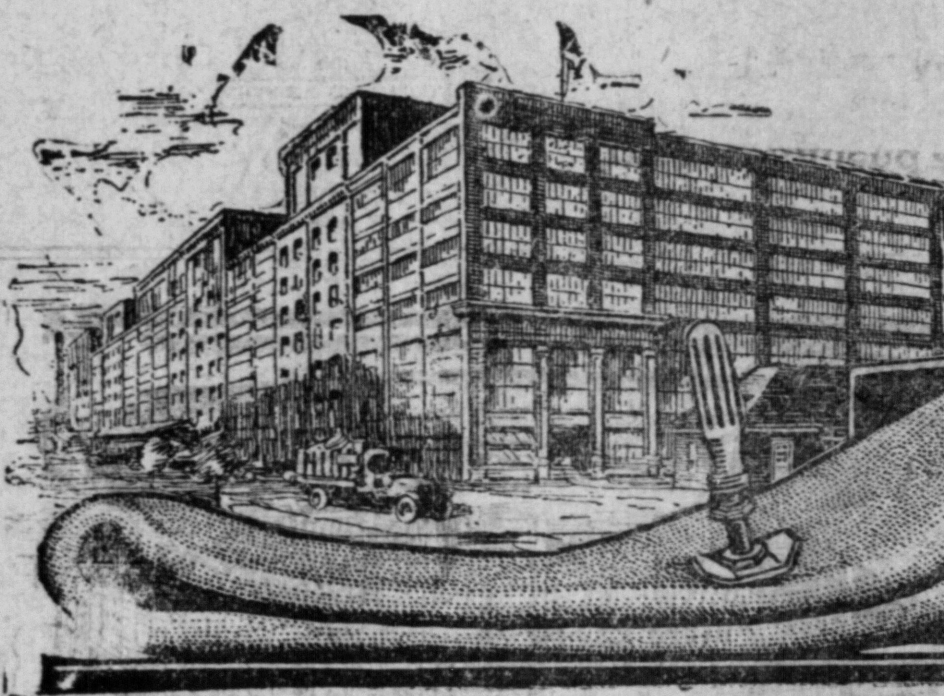

The industrious beaver is taken into camp in an ordinary trap. The dam is broken, to expose the submerged entrance to the beaver house. Pounding on the side of the house then drives the beaver out, straight into the trap which has been placed across the doorway.

In trapping animals, the most extraordinary care is taken not to injure them. Yellowstone National Park is the nation's greatest game preserve, where more varieties of native animals can be seen than anywhere else in the country and the

House and Senate Pass Measure
Appropriating Two Million For
American Legion Home

NOW GOES TO GOV. GOODRICH

Conferees Agree on Restoring Control
of Tax Levies and Bonds
to Local Taxing Units

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.— Shorn of senate amendments increasing the appropriation about $2,000,000, the war memorial bill
received final action by both branches
of the special legislature today.
It will now go to the governor.
Both the house and the senate
concurred on reports of the conference on the measure.

The bill now appropriates $2,000,000 as the state's contribution to the war memorial building to be erected in Indianapolis as the national headquarters for the American Legion.
The fight surrounding this bill was second only to that over proposed tax legislation. It originally provided for a $10,000,000 memorial building, on which the state was to give $5,000,000 and the city of Indianapolis and Marion county the remainder.

The house cut the state's share to $2,000,000 and the senate boosted it.
The tax measure originating in the house and amended in the senate, stood a good chance at seeing light of day and Lieutenant Governor Bush and other leaders, predicted that an agreement could be reached by conferees on senate
amendments, and adjournment
would be probably tonight.

Conference committees on the home rule bill and the "cure all"
tax bill were reported near agreement with the senate conceding on one and the house on the other.

The senators on the home rule bill
committee were victorious in restoring the control of the tax levies
and bond issues to the local taxing units, giving 20 taxpayers the right of appeal to the county council. The house favored vesting the appeal
power in the state tax board.

On the cure all bill the senators

Capp Miller Gets 35 Bushels to
Acre From Treated Seed Wheat

Capp Miller, living southwest of Rushville, has threshed an eight acre tract of wheat which yielded 35
bushels to the acre, and will keep the wheat for seed. The seed used on the eight acres was given the hot water treatment, which is believed to be the cause for the big yield. The untreated wheat averaged slightly better than 20 bushels
to the acre.

County Agent D. D. Ball is anxious for all farmers who have a big yield, to save the wheat and list it
for sale, as there will be a scarcity
this fall of good seed wheat.

WILSON MAY TAKE A HAND IN STRIKE

President's Action Will Depend on
Report Which Will Be Made by
Secretary Wilson.

COAL OPERATORS WILL MEET

To Confer Friday Over Suggestion
of Pres. Lewis For Joint Conference to Try to End Strike

(By United Press.)
Washington, July 29.—President Wilson shortly will take a hand in the coal strike in Indiana and Illinois, it was stated at the White House today.

It was intimated here, however,
that Wilson's action will depend upon a report which is to be submitted to him by Secretary of Labor Wilson who was called back to Washington in connection with the strike.

Springfield, Ill., July 29.—The strike of 75,000 Illinois miners will end in two or three days in the judgment of Frank Farrington, President of the Illinois miners' union, he said today.

Harrington refused to amplify his statement, merely adding that what he knew of the situation at this time
led him to believe the difficulties will be ironed out within the next 48 or 72 hours.

St. Louis, Mo., July 29.—Coal operators of the central competitive
coal fields will confer Friday in Chicago over the situation caused by the unauthorized strike in bituminous coal fields, Thomas T.
Brewster, chairman of the operators executive committee, announced today.

Brewster today issued a call for the meeting. Operators of Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania will consider at the conference the request of John L. Lewis, president of the Union Mine Workers of America for a joint meeting being held to attempt settlement of the strike.
The operators' position also probably will be definitely decided.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 29.—Very little change in conditions in mining circles was reported today, the third day of the unauthorized coal strike,
which the miners termed a "lay off."
About seventy per cent of the mines in the Indiana fields were still closed, according to word from the coal trade bureau. The car supply of those which are running is ample
due to the fact that the majority of the mines were closed.

The outstanding feature of the developments of the past twenty-four hours was the miners' meeting at Twelve Points late yesterday afternoon, which resulted in a near riot.
Two newspaper reporters were mobbed and rushed to the meeting held by the miners. They were jeered at and called "ten cent dudes"
because newspapers have referred to the present condition as a strike,
when the miners insist that they have only quit.

The miners' meeting adjourned in confusion without having taken definite action. It had just received recommendations of the union leaders that the miners return to work
pending efforts to adjust the differences.

SOME ELEVATORS CAN'T GET CARS

Few in Rush County Stop Buying
Wheat Because Limit of Stor-
age Capacity is Reached

RUSHVILLE ELEVATORS LUCKY

Manilla and Rays Crossing Have
Not Had Wheat Car—One Each
at Arlington and Falmouth

In the midst of the harvest season
several elevators in the county are being compelled to shut down on account of the inability to secure cars
for shipping, and are filled to the limit on storing wheat, and in these localities the farmers are holding the grain in their own barns to await better shipping conditions.

The three Rushville elevators,
Winklers, Reed's and Ball & Ormes
reported today that they considered themselves fortunate in securing
cars, and were shipping out wheat
daily, with still room for storage.

The elevator at Falmouth was compelled to close last Friday, being filled with grain and unable to secure cars for shipment. They reported that so far this season they have secured only one car for shipping.

The elevators at Manilla and Rays Crossing, owned by Thomas
K. Mull, have not had a single car
this season, according to the report
given out at these elevators today.
Both elevators are large, and are accepting the grain in storage, and will have room for more grain.

The Hutchinson elevator in Arlington is also among the unfortunate ones having been able to secure only one car this season. It was loaded yesterday. This elevator is also storing grain, and will continue to do so, until its capacity is filled.

The elevator at Farmers, owned by T. H. Reed & Son of this city, has not experienced difficulty in shipping grain, as cars have been set off at their switch almost daily.
Milroy is also fortunate, having had five cars this week, and at no
time have they been in a serious
plight on account of the shortage of cars. Some grain is being stored
there, but most of it is being shipped out, while the cars are on hand
one car being loaded for shipment
this afternoon.

The elevator at Mays, located on the L. E. & W. railroad, reported today that so far they have not experienced any difficulty in getting cars, and are accepting wheat daily
and are shipping it out promptly.

DETACHMENT OF 85 SOLDIERS ARRIVES

Pitches Camp at City Park and Will Give Drills and Demonstrations
Tomorrow.

CARRIES TANK AND TRACTOR

Two officers and 85 enlisted soldiers, all members of the famous
First Division, arrived here this afternoon about three o'clock in motor trucks, and will spend the night and part of tomorrow in this city, where they will give drills and demonstrations along different lines. They pitched camp in the city park.

The local postoffice received information yesterday concerning the arrival of the detachment, but it was not known then that so many soldiers would be in the party. The advance guard came in this afternoon in charge of Lt. Angle and Lt.
Butler accompanied the remainder of the party.

The soldiers are travelling in
army trucks, carry much equipment,
including a tank and a caterpillar
tractor, that is hauled on large motor trucks. The detachment is also equipped with a moving kitchen
where the 85 men are given their meals. Exhibitions and demonstrations of many kinds will be given tonight and tomorrow by the soldiers,
and the public is invited to inspect
the camp in the city park tonight
and in the morning.

ESTATE TANGLED DUE TO ROBBERY

Theft of William L. Cory's Will
When Spiceland Bank Was En-
tered Causes Complications

Sudden Death of Dunreith Man, Who
Was Killed by Train, Further
Complicates Case

Bank robbers who rifled the deposit boxes of the Spiceland bank
several months ago, created a difficult situation in the settlement of the estate of the late William L.
Cory of Dunreith. Mr. Cory, who possessed an estate estimated at as much as $75,000, but which is officially reported at only $45,000, was killed on March 12, by a Pennsylvania railroad train. When a search was started for the will it was discovered that the bank robbers had carried it away with them.

In the hope that, since it was worthless to the robbers, the will might in time be recovered, the settlement of the estate has been postponed. However, it is now believed that the papers taken by the robbers
from the safety deposit boxes, were burned to avoid giving any clues.

The widow, Mrs. Virginia G. Cory
has therefore applied to the Henry Circuit court for letters of administration and will attempt to carry out the provisions of her late husband's will from memory. The only heirs named besides herself are two adopted children, Walter B. Harvey
of Pittsburgh, Pa. and Ruth A. Harvey of Dunreith.

Not only has the act of the robbers in taking the will thrown the affairs into a considerable tangle,
but has also been instrumental in bringing to light a considerable amount of philanthropy on the part of Mr. Cory. The disappearance of the will made necessary a close investigation into the affairs of the estate. This revealed the fact that he was using his own money to further the education of three children of which he had been appointed guardian, after the children's funds had been exhausted. He was also guardian of two persons, who are confined in insane asylums.

Mr. Cory provided for $1,000 of his estate to go to the Spiceland Academy. At the time of his sudden death reports were due on two of the children under his guardianship, who had reached age. This has now been taken care of by the widow.

The deceased was one of the best known residents in the southern part of Henry county and for some years conducted a canning factory
at Dunreith. He was also the owner of considerable real estate.

EPIDEMIC OF PETTY THIEVING HITS CITY

Causes Concern Among Number of
People Who Have Been Both-
ered by Prowlers

ONLY SMALL THINGS TAKEN

An epidemic of petty thieving
has hit Rushville and is causing considerable concern among a number of residents who have been bothered at night lately by prowlers.

Canary birds seem to be a special target for the robbers, who have taken two from front porches of Rushville homes in broad daylight
during the last week. None of the articles stolen has been of any great value, but some people fear that made bold by eluding capture, the robbers may attempt bigger jobs.

Such small and insignificant
things as pillows have been taken off of front porches, and other articles of little value have been reported missing by a number of Rushville people. Several women have been frightened at night during the last week by men who have been heard about their homes.

"BABY BEEF" MAKE RECORD

Three Shorthorn Steers Raised by
James Stiers Top Market

James Stiers topped the Indianapolis cattle market this week with three head of "baby beef", which brought $16.50 a hundred. They were thoroughbred shorthorns which he bred and raised himself and he is very proud of the record they made.

The shorthorns were only fourteen months old but they averaged 910 pounds each. The steers were bought by Ray Compton of this city and shipped to Indianapolis by him,
selling $2 a hundred above the market price on that day.

NO DANGER FROM FLAG STRAW SMUT

Illinois Officials Assure Authorities
in This State That No Diseased
Straw Will Be Shipped

Conservation Department Takes Action Against Illinois When Ship-
ping Rumors Are Heard

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.—Illinois authorities have assured Richard Lieber, director of conservation
in Indiana, that no straw from flag smut infected fields of that state will be shipped into Indiana.
The department learned a few days
ago such action was contemplated
and promptly notified Illinois officials if the plan was carried out,
then a state-wide quarantine would be placed on their state. "Such action was necessary," Mr. Lieber says, "to protect Indiana agriculture."

According to Frank N. Wallace, state entomologist, flag smut differs
from other wheat smuts in that it attacks the leaves. In the latter stages of this disease the flag smut causes the leaf and its sheath or boot, to become twisted and much distorted. Smutted plants rarely produce heads. While the disease is comparatively new in this country,
in European countries it is known to have reduced a crop 50 percent. The important thing Mr. Wallace points out, if flag smut, like stem smut, of rye, is allowed to go unchecked, it will grow steadily more destructive for the very resistant spores are easily capable of surviving in the soil.

Flag smut is easily recognized by the long narrow stripes on the leaves. At first these stripes are bluish green or lead color, and later become black. It differs distinctly from rust of wheat on one hand and loose smut, on the other, because it attacks the leaves, while they attack
the heads and kernels.

This disease results from the seedling becoming infected before
the young plants appear above the ground and it can be controlled by seed treatment. The problem of control, complicated because the infection may result from spores already present in the soil or on old straw
or other refuse previously worked
into the soil, is frequently difficult.
No amount of seed treatment can result in the prevention of flag smut
unless that treatment is combined with a proper crop rotation. Mr.
Wallace recommends at least a 3-year rotation. This smut is known to infect wheat only, and cannot as many believe, produce the similar smut in rye. The stem smut of rye which resembles very closely the flag smut of wheat, is easily prevented by the application of formaldehyde at the rate of 1 pint to 40 gallons of water. It is probable that the same solution applied for a period of 10 to 30 minutes will prove effective in killing any seed borne spores of flag smut. The safest procedure, however, is to use for seed
only wheat from clean wheat seedling 2 1/2 inches.

BANKS VALUED AT $1,101,500

Assessments Fixed by State Board
of Tax Commissioners Are Received by Auditor

REVEAL STRENGTH OF BANKS

Seventeen Telephone Companies Do-
ing Business in County Are Assessed at $235,121

The thirteen banks and trust companies of Rush county will pay taxes next year on a combined valuation of $1,101,500, according to the assessments which were made by the state board of tax commissioners
and have been certified to the Rush
county auditor.

The express, telephone and telegraph companies have a combined
valuation for taxation purposes of $303,801. These figures have also been sent to the auditor by the state board.

None of the assessments is materially changed, as compared with those of last year.

The valuations put on the bank
stock of the county reveals the strength of Rush county's valuations. None of the counties in this section, where the state board has completed the assessments, has so much represented in bank stock,
which is assessed at its true cash
value.

The Rush County National bank
has the largest assessment, $241,400,
but the stock of the Peoples National bank is assessed higher per share. Its value is placed at $304.89
a share, but there are only five hundred shares out, as compared with one thousand shares in the Rush
county bank.

The Rushville Co-operative telephone company is valued higher by the state tax board than any other
of the seventeen companies doing business in Rush county. Its assessment was fixed at $117,990.

The banks of the county were assessed for a combined valuation of $1,101,500 as follows:

Arlington bank, 400 shares at $79.25 each, $31,700.
Bank of Carthage, 1,000 shares at $151.50 each, $151,500.
Falmouth bank, 100 shares at $187 each, $18,700.
Glenwood State bank, 250 shares
at $187.20 each, $46,800.
Manilla bank, 200 shares at $257

LOCAL RELATIVES AT FUNERAL

Mrs. Sarah Ball and daughter
Miss Eva Ball, arrived home yesterday from Lebanon, Ind., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Ball's son-in-law, Andrew Johnson Shelby, who died Sunday afternoon from an

member of the Boone County Bar Association.

The Boone County Bar association
held a memorial service Monday afternoon at the county house in Lebanon, at which eulogistic talks were made by professional friends of the former attorney. They were flanked by attorneys present, including those from counties surrounding Boone who spoke briefly. Resolutions were also adopted by the bar association.
All of the attorneys of Boone county
attended the funeral in a body
yesterday morning.

Mr. Shelby was the son of Mr.
Ball of this city, who died in the Arkansas River. Mr. Shelby and his wife had been married for many years and were well known in

To Promote Efficiency

At its recent session the congress enacted a number of meritorious, constructive measures among which one of great importance is the retirement act which provides for the retirement of aged government employees and the pensioning of those who have served their country in the civil service over a considerable period of their lives. Only a few hundred employees will be thus retired. The pension payments that will be made by the government will be inconsiderable in amount. The importance of the measure lies, therefore, not in the number of employees retired nor in the amount of pensions that will be paid, but in the increased efficiency of the government service that will result from the saving of delay and consequent loss to the public which deals with the various government departments.

It matters relatively little to the country if an aged, infirm and inefficient employee receives some $1500 or $1800 per year for services he is incapable of performing. If that loss of a few hundred dollars per year were the only loss sustained, no great regret need be expressed. But that is the least of the losses suffered by reason of the retention of supernumerated government employees. It may very easily and frequently happen that business of utmost importance in which a private citizen has dealings with the government may be trusted to—the charge of one of these incapacitated employees—with the result that through delay or error, thousands, or hundred of thousands of dollars are lost to the individual citizen without the possibility of recompense. Each government employee is a link in the chain, a cog in the wheel, of the governmental machinery. Most government business must be transacted through the agency of employees and it makes little difference how efficiently the work may be performed by a dozen other employees if delay and error result from the inefficiency of one.

For many years there has been

agitation in favor of the enactment of a retirement law which would make it possible for the government to relieve men who had rendered valuable service through a long period of years but who were incapacitated by age and who could not be arbitrarily dismissed without privation and suffering which would reflect discredit upon the government. By providing a pension system toward which the government employees themselves will contribute and to which they can look with confidence for sustenance in their old age, the government has not only dealt justly with its employees but has assured more efficient public service in the future.

Piety and Piety

Many people have a strenuous objection to being called pious. The piety of today does not consist of pulling a long face and a sour grin. That form of piety is a thing of the past. Neither is the man with a beautiful smirk necessarily pious. Some of the worst scoundrels in the world travel around with a saintly smile and endeavor to create a halo of benevolence around their ungodly brows.

That is the reason so many men object to being termed pious. The true piety of today does not welter in the gloom of its own existence. Instead it radiates the joy of life in a manner which all men know comes from the heart and is not donned for commercial reasons. Pose as an apostle of piety? Forget it! Give us instead the rugged honesty and simple truthfulness of a real man, who sincerely endeavors to do a little good in the world in his own humble and unobtrusive way, with no plaudits from the multitude and no thought of reward from St. Peter when he reaches the golden gate.

Some men talk loudly of justice, and roar quite as loudly when they get it.

When he had his picture taken with his head upon his hand. We were good and proud of Billy—he was looking something grand! He had started in to college and was tagged for father's frat. Or some other great achievement quite as wonderful as that. So we were impressed with Billy and were proud to beat the band. When he had his picture taken with his head upon his hand.

That is, all we kids felt that way. Father seemed to like it less. For, he said, "Good Lord!" when shown it, and he seemed in deep distress. Mother gripped a bit and giggled, and somehow it wasn't joy Or the kind we had expected, for the honor of her boy. And she said, "Remember, father?" "Yes," he said. "I cannot stand To recall MY picture taken with my head upon my hand!"

About Advertising.

Advertising is what nothing was ever sold without.

If a loaf of bread is sold to a tramp who managed to gnom onto a jitney, it had been advertised by the tramp's hunger—and by somebody who told the "bo" where the bakery was.

Or by the window of the bakery itself.

There isn't a human being who doesn't believe in advertising.

If he really doesn't, he had better commit suicide.

And that will give him a lot of publicity that nobody can cash in on.

The man who claims not to believe in advertising is a well, let somebody else say it.

This boob is anxious for everybody to tell other people that his place is a good one to trade.

But he won't give the advertiser anything for telling the other folks.

He is a something-for-nothing tightwad.

The man who puts on good clothes advertises his own respectability, and expects results in the shape of the respect of others.

The man who dresses poorly because of necessity or purposely, advertises his poverty and expects results in other people's help or contempt.

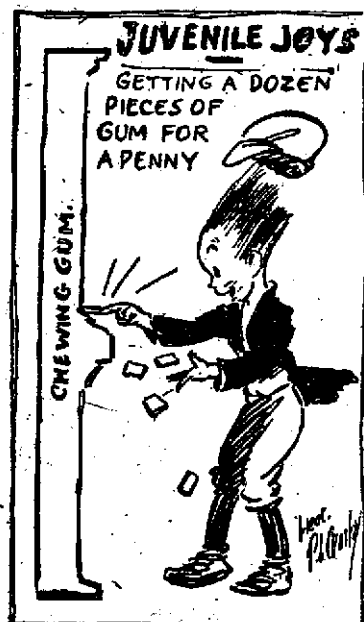

In fact, every honest person wants advertising.

Only dishonest people are afraid of it, and they get it anyway.

Big Crowd of Fans Expected to Journey to Quaker City Sunday For Game

HAVE WONDER DONE UP THERE

Dispatch Says Tail Lights Have Only One Local Player Which Is Far From Truth

The Richmond baseball club is figuring the Rushville Tail Lights wrong, according to information received here today, when a dispatch from that city said that the Rushville team is composed of only one local player and the remaining players hail from Indianapolis and Cincinnati.

The Tail Lights play at Richmond next Sunday, and will be accompanied by a large crowd of enthusiasts, Manager Conway wishing to secure room for some of the players in automobiles, if anyone has an extra seat.

Plummer, who pitched winning ball for the Arlington Red Sox last year, will be given a tryout Sunday with the Tail Lights and Hobart, McCarty and Yazel of this city will be ready to relieve him.

This is the first year that Rushville has put a ball team on the field consisting of all local players, and the best talent in the city takes part in the games. The Tail Lights are heavy sluggers and in each game played have hammered out not less than eight hits, and as a rule generally average twelve to fourteen hits.

The following from Richmond today will be of interest among local fans:

"Rushville Tail Lights, claimers of baseball championship of eastern Indiana, will back their claims against the Richmond Eagles at Exhibition Park Sunday afternoon. Incidentally the Eagles are claiming the same championship.

"The showing made by the Eagles in the last four games has resulted in a larger attendance at each baseball game. Women attendants will be admitted free to all games for the rest of the season. Manager Haas announced Wednesday.

"It is believed that one member of the Rushville Tail Lights hails from Rushville. The rest are class players hired from Indianapolis and Cincinnati and Rushville strongly backs its team, thus insuring good players.

"Manager Haas said Wednesday he believed the Richmond Eagles would go through the season without another defeat. This includes the so-called championship games that are to be played with the Richmond Giants, Hagerstown and the champ of the Suburban league. Several strong teams yet remain upon the schedule."

BUTLER TO PLAY IS EXPECTED TO WIN THE DAVIS CUP

ROSE POLY AT TERRE HAUTE.

New Coach is Expected to Bring Indianapolis College to Front in Football This Year

By HEBBE CLARK

Indianapolis, Ind. July 29—Within less than two months the foot ball men of Indiana colleges will start hard training for the early games of the season.

Already many gridiron stars are taking light training.

While the season is still two months away the football fans are wondering what Pat Page will accomplish at Butler college. Page has developed championship teams at Chicago working with Alonzo Stag. There has been much discontent at Butler with the alumni system of coaching and the Butler authorities went the limit—they hired Page.

The best coach must have material from which to build a machine but it is not expected that Page or any other man can make a state championship team at Butler in one or two seasons. Page gave orders to use the Chicago U. system and plat most of the games on the home field and his orders were followed. Rose Poly is the only team that Butler will play away from Indianapolis.

Oct. 2—Butler plays Whittenberg.

Oct. 9—Butler meets Hanover College.

Oct. 16—Butler meets Wilmington (an Ohio college eleven).

Oct. 23—Butler and Earlham tangle.

Oct. 30—Butler meets Georgetown university (first game between the two elevens in five years).

Butler tangles with Franklin Nov. 6.

Nov. 13—Butler plays Rose Poly at Terre Haute.

Butler closes its season Nov. 20 with a game with the Chicago Y. M. C. A. College team.

U. S. Tennis Team Has Made Good Showing Against France and England and Victory is Certain

National Teams Will Take Part in Championship Games in Australia For The Davis Trophy

(By United Press.)

New York, July 28.—American tennis circles are getting yells ready to acclaim the victorious American team when it returns from Australia next winter with the Davis Cup.

The showing made by the American team in disposing of France and England in the preliminaries not only inspired this confidence here, but led English experts to believe that the Americans will be invincible if they keep up the style and brand of tennis that was shown during the preliminary matches and the British championships.

England rates William T. Tilden as one of the most deserving players that has ever held the world's championship title and he has just as many friends in America who believe that he has hit his real stride and will continue his sensational game on through the finals for the Davis Cup.

After William M. Johnston, the national champion, was eliminated by J. C. Parke, in the Wimbledon matches, some concern was felt in America lest the little Pacific Coast star was off his game. But in the matches between the British and American cup teams he avenged himself for the defeat and came back into his own bright game.

With Charles S. Garland and "Dick" Williams, who were spared in the preliminary matches, to fall back on, the chances of the Yankee team in the finals for the cup appear unusually bright.

Patterson and Brookes will be the same hard pair to beat, but most of the experts believe it can be done.

Park and Rushville Furniture Co. Men Arrange Sunday Game

While the Tail Lights are at Richmond Sunday, the Park Furniture company and the Rushville Furniture company teams of the Saturday afternoon league will play on the West Third street diamonds. The game will be the regular contest scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The rivalry between these two teams has been very keen and a good game is promised because both teams have some victories to their credit this season. Sunday will be the first time the Tail Lights have been away from home for several weeks and the factory teams will take advantage of their absence.

THE NEW OVERLAND

On Triplex Springs smoothly glided over the nation's roughest roads has written a wonderful story of stamina. The story began with the unprecedented pre-production test covering 250,000 miles of the wild country of the great Southwest. In its first eight months of service among 75,000 owners climax upon climax has been piled up in records of extraordinary performance.

The remarkable performance of the Overland is due largely to its jar-absorbing Triplex Springs, which prevent the usual pounding of rough roads from causing discomfort to passengers. They also reduce the stress and strain on motor and chassis, preserving the car for longer wear and reducing upkeep. The chassis itself of finest alloy steel adds to the stamina of the car as a whole.

The success of the Overland Triplex Springs has changed the attitude of thousands toward the light type of motor car. You cannot truly appreciate the comfort, economy and stamina of the new Overland until you have actually ridden in this car.

RHEUMATISM REPORTS SHOW AN INCREASE IN GAME

Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-Four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed your druggist to guarantee it in every instance.—(Advt.)

National Park Service Sends Animals to Public Parks Where They Are Given Chance to Multiply

SHIP MANY ELK FROM PARK

Yellowstone Park is Nation's Greatest Game Preserver Where Many Varieties of Animals Are Seen

Yellowstone, Park, Wyo., July 28.—Encouraging reports regarding the increase in native American game have been received by officials of Yellowstone National Park from many cities and states to which breeding animals from the famous park preserve were donated.

In an effort to repair the damage done by hunters, who have exterminated native animals in the more thickly populated sections, it has been the policy of the National Park Service to send bison, elk, bear, antelope and beaver to public parks and state preserves where they would be given favorable environment and a chance to multiply. In some cases, the state laws have not sufficed to protect the animals, especially elk, from selfish hunters, and a number have been killed, but the remainder have shown healthy increase.

Park officials today expressed regret over exports from Europe that the European bison has been virtually exterminated in the chaos following the war. The famous herd owned by Count Potocki and other rare animals on his estate were slaughtered by the Bolsheviks in their policy of destroying everything that could not be commonly owned. The czar's herd of 700 in Lithuania has been reduced to 180 animals by deserters and poachers in the forest of Byelorussia.

More elk have been shipped from Yellowstone since last season than any other kind of game. During the hard winter it was impossible to feed all the animals and to keep some of the elk from starving to death, donations were freely made. The government of Canada received 998, which were sent to parks in the Rockies. In return, the Dominion officials generously offered to send moose, goats and sheep to Yellowstone, but the offer was not accepted because the Yellowstone moose are of a different variety; the park has never had any goats, a fact which has vexed naturalists, and the mountain sheep already there are increasing satisfactorily.

Elk also have been sent recently to Minneapolis, Minn.; Kerrville, Texas; Paisades Park, New Jersey, near New York City; Platt National Park, Sulphur, Oklahoma; St. Louis, Mo.; Allentown, Pa.; Sonora Experiment Station, Sonora, Texas, and Pierre, S. D. Previously large shipments were made to mountain states in the West.

Much ingenuity is exercised to trap the animals for shipment. In the case of elk, a trail of succulent hay is laid into a corral and when the elk have entered, the gate is closed by means of a rope, operated by a Ranger hidden some distance away. For two days the animals are kept to accustom them to men and then are shipped in specially fitted express cars.

Buffalo, of course, come from the park's noted tame herd, which now numbers more than 500 animals. Antelope are obtained in the same manner as the elk.

Bears forfeit their freedom in gratifying their weakness for sweets. A cage trap is arranged with honey and preserves inside. The bear doesn't hesitate, once he gets a sniff. Straight into the cage he goes and the man secreted on top then pushes down the door. The cage must be lined with sheet-iron, otherwise Bruin would tear the sides to pieces with his sharp claws. It has happened half a dozen times. Only young, healthy animals are shipped out of the park and in case an unsuitable specimen is obtained, the door is opened to let him out. Frequently, however, the sweets inside prove too much and the bear, driven away, trots back in again and again.

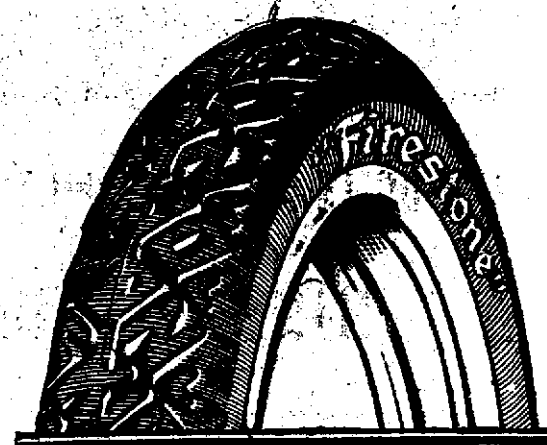

The industrious beaver is taken into camp in an ordinary trap. The dam is broken to expose the submerged entrance to the beaver house. Pounding on the side of the house then drives the beaver out, straight into the trap which has been placed across the doorway.

In trapping animals, the most extraordinary care is taken not to injure them. Yellowstone National Park is the nation's greatest game preserve, where more varieties of native animals can be seen than anywhere else in the country and the
